¹On September 26, 2013, the parties filed a stipulation for dismissal of plaintiffs' claims against Superior Well Services, Inc., Haliburton Energy Services, and Crude Processing, Inc., formerly known as CCS Midstream Services, LLC, now known as Tervita LLC ("Crude Processing"), without prejudice. (Docket No. 33). The court adopted the stipulation in an order dated September 28, 2013. (Docket No. 34).

Although the claims against Crude Processing had been dismissed, it appears that Crude Processing filed responses to plaintiffs' subsequent motion to amend their complaint and also joined in an appeal of the undersigned order granting plaintiffs' motion to amend. (Docket Nos. 50, 58, 62-63).
